

Spring Session

New Students Welcome!

This spring session will start the week of February 22, 2010 and will follow the school calendar. While this session will be a continuation of Semester 1, new students are welcome to join as we will be learning new topics.

Through active learning and creative play, Véronique Proietto a native of France, will take her class into the heart of the French culture and language. Véronique has many years of experience teaching French to children.
